New UN partnership seeks to boost Information and Communication Technology in the Arab region egovmonitor.com 21 hrs ago 4 related Source: UNESCO Published Tuesday, 11 August, 2009 - 09:29 The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) has teamed up with a Jordanian-based business services company to promote information and communication technology (ICT) to support education, science and culture in the Arab region. The agreement signed today in Paris between UNESCO and the Talat Abu-Ghazaleh Organization (TAG-Org) seeks to increase access to and measure the use of ICT in different sectors of society, enhance teacher training, and promote multilingualism and internationalized Internet Domain Names. "UNESCO relies upon and welcomes partners such as TAG-Org to realize the vision of knowledge societies," stated Koichiro Matsuura, Director-General of UNESCO. The agency and TAG-Org are planning to create a... [read full story]
