

TAGSB to offer MBA in Logistic next semester, prepares for criminal accounting

Jordan: Sunday, June 03 - 2012 at 12:18

PRESS RELEASE

Dean of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) Dr. Hesham Gharaibeh announced that the School will start teaching the Logistic Science within its MBA program starting the upcoming semester in September 2012.

"TAGSB takes the lead in offering such a concentration for its growing demand on local and regional levels," Gharaibeh said. He pointed out that TAGSB Advisory Council and Deanship have finalized a study focusing on other vital specialties required by the local and neighboring markets including an MBA in Forensic Accounting stressing that work is under process to finalize procedures to offer it at TAGSB.

Gharaibeh revealed that the Jordanian Armed Forces, represented by the Royal Medical Services, have started an agreement with TAGSB Administration to send pharmacists working at the Medical Services to study Logistics in addition to other companies and organizations who showed interest in enrolling their employees in this field of study.

Consequently, the Dean stated that TAGSB Advisory Council Chairman Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh decided to grant all students delegated by the Armed Forces- Royal Medical Services a special fees discount in gratitude for all the medical services they provide to the community.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) is the first school of its kind in the Arab world that represents a partnership between the private and public sectors. It was founded to provide educational opportunities at the highest international standards.

TAGSB's aim is to prepare students for leadership positions in certain specialized fields. The MBA program is accredited by the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA).

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) has been honored with an award of "Best Educational Institute in Administration in Asia by the World Education Congress Asia Awards 2011, global awards for excellence in education, leadership and teaching.

While according to Forbes Middle East, "Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business Leads Best MBA Offering Schools in the Arab world."

<http://www.ameinfo.com/tagsb-offer-mba-logistic-semester-prepares-302478>

Press Release: TAGSB to offer MBA in Logistic next semester, prepares for criminal accounting

3 June 2012, 9:18 GMT |

Updated: 3 June 2012, 10:04 GMT

Dean of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) Dr. Hesham Gharaibeh announced that the School will start teaching the Logistic Science within its MBA program starting the upcoming semester in September 2012.

“TAGSB takes the lead in offering such a concentration for its growing demand on local and regional levels,” Gharaibeh said. He pointed out that TAGSB Advisory Council and Deanship have finalized a study focusing on other vital specialties required by the local and neighboring markets including an MBA in Forensic Accounting stressing that work is under process to finalize procedures to offer it at TAGSB.

Gharaibeh revealed that the Jordanian Armed Forces, represented by the Royal Medical Services, have started an agreement with TAGSB Administration to send pharmacists working at the Medical Services to study Logistics in addition to other companies and organizations who showed interest in enrolling their employees in this field of study.

Consequently, the Dean stated that TAGSB Advisory Council Chairman Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh decided to grant all students delegated by the Armed Forces- Royal Medical Services a special fees discount in gratitude for all the medical services they provide to the community.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) is the first school of its kind in the Arab world that represents a partnership between the private and public sectors. It was founded to provide educational opportunities at the highest international standards.

TAGSB’s aim is to prepare students for leadership positions in certain specialized fields. The MBA program is accredited by the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA).

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) has been honored with an award of "Best Educational Institute in Administration in Asia by the World Education Congress Asia Awards 2011, global awards for excellence in education, leadership and teaching

While according to Forbes Middle East, "Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business Leads Best MBA Offering Schools in the Arab world.

<http://www.meed.com/tagsb-to-offer-mba-in-logistic-next-semester-prepares-for-criminal-accounting/3140146.article>

TAGSB to offer MBA in Logistic next semester, prepares for criminal accounting

Dean of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) Dr. Hesham Gharaibeh announced that the School will start teaching the Logistic Science within its MBA program starting the upcoming semester in September 2012. "TAGSB takes the lead in offering such a concentration for its growing demand on local and regional levels," Gharaibeh said. He pointed out that TAGSB Advisory Council and Deanship have finalized a study focusing on other vital specialties required by the local and neighboring markets including an MBA in Forensic Accounting stressing that work is under process to finalize procedures to offer it at TAGSB.

Gharaibeh revealed that the Jordanian Armed Forces, represented by the Royal Medical Services, have started an agreement with TAGSB Administration to send pharmacists working at the Medical Services to study Logistics in addition to other companies and organizations who showed interest in enrolling their employees in this field of study.

Consequently, the Dean stated that TAGSB Advisory Council Chairman Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh decided to grant all students delegated by the Armed Forces- Royal Medical Services a special fees discount in gratitude for all the medical services they provide to the community.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) is the first school of its kind in the Arab world that represents a partnership between the private and public sectors. It was founded to provide educational opportunities at the highest international standards.

TAGSB's aim is to prepare students for leadership positions in certain specialized fields. The MBA program is accredited by the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA).

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) has been honored with an award of "Best Educational Institute in Administration in Asia by the World Education Congress Asia Awards 2011, global awards for excellence in education, leadership and teaching.

While according to Forbes Middle East, "Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business Leads Best MBA Offering Schools in the Arab world."

<http://www.ammannewsdaily.com/story-z6300306>

TAGSB to offer MBA in Logistic next semester, prepares for criminal accounting

Jordan: Sunday, June 03 - 2012 at 12:18

PRESS RELEASE

Dean of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) Dr. Hesham Gharaibeh announced that the School will start teaching the Logistic Science within its MBA program starting the upcoming semester in September 2012.

"TAGSB takes the lead in offering such a concentration for its growing demand on local and regional levels," Gharaibeh said. He pointed out that TAGSB Advisory Council and Deanship have finalized a study focusing on other vital specialties required by the local and neighboring markets including an MBA in Forensic Accounting stressing that work is under process to finalize procedures to offer it at TAGSB.

Gharaibeh revealed that the Jordanian Armed Forces, represented by the Royal Medical Services, have started an agreement with TAGSB Administration to send pharmacists working at the Medical Services to study Logistics in addition to other companies and organizations who showed interest in enrolling their employees in this field of study.

Consequently, the Dean stated that TAGSB Advisory Council Chairman Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh decided to grant all students delegated by the Armed Forces- Royal Medical Services a special fees discount in gratitude for all the medical services they provide to the community.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) is the first school of its kind in the Arab world that represents a partnership between the private and public sectors. It was founded to provide educational opportunities at the highest international standards.

TAGSB's aim is to prepare students for leadership positions in certain specialized fields. The MBA program is accredited by the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA).

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) has been honored with an award of "Best Educational Institute in Administration in Asia by the World Education Congress Asia Awards 2011, global awards for excellence in education, leadership and teaching.

While according to Forbes Middle East, "Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business Leads Best MBA Offering Schools in the Arab world."

<http://www.squidoo.com/mbaonlineprograms>

TAGSB to Offer MBA in Logistic Next Semester, Prepares for Criminal Accounting

Abu-Ghazaleh grants Armed Forces students a special discount

AMMAN: Dean of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) Dr. Hesham Gharaibeh announced that the School will start teaching the Logistic Science within its MBA program starting the upcoming semester in September 2012.

"TAGSB takes the lead in offering such a concentration for its growing demand on local and regional levels," Gharaibeh said. He pointed out that TAGSB Advisory Council and Deanship have finalized a study focusing on other vital specialties required by the local and neighboring markets including an MBA in Forensic Accounting stressing that work is under process to finalize procedures to offer it at TAGSB.

Gharaibeh revealed that the Jordanian Armed Forces, represented by the Royal Medical Services, have started an agreement with TAGSB Administration to send pharmacists working at the Medical Services to study Logistics in addition to other companies and organizations who showed interest in enrolling their employees in this field of study.

Consequently, the Dean stated that TAGSB Advisory Council Chairman Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh decided to grant all students delegated by the Armed Forces- Royal Medical Services a special fees discount in gratitude for all the medical services they provide to the community.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) is the first school of its kind in the Arab world that represents a partnership between the private and public sectors. It was founded to provide educational opportunities at the highest international standards.

TAGSB's aim is to prepare students for leadership positions in certain specialized fields. The MBA program is accredited by the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA).

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) has been honored with an award of "Best Educational Institute in Administration in Asia by the World Education Congress Asia Awards 2011, global awards for excellence in education, leadership and teaching

While according to Forbes Middle East, "Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business Leads Best MBA Offering Schools in the Arab world.

http://www.zawya.com/story/TAGSB_to_Offer_MBA_in_Logistic_Next_Semester_Prepares_for_Criminal_Accounting-ZAWYA20120603092434/

Forensic Accounting

TAGSB to offer MBA in Logistic next semester, prepares for criminal accounting

Jordan: Sunday, June 03 - 2012 at 12:18

PRESS RELEASE

Dean of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) Dr. Hesham Gharaibeh announced that the School will start teaching the Logistic Science within its MBA program starting the upcoming semester in September 2012.

"TAGSB takes the lead in offering such a concentration for its growing demand on local and regional levels," Gharaibeh said. He pointed out that TAGSB Advisory Council and Deanship have finalized a study focusing on other vital specialties required by the local and neighboring markets including an MBA in Forensic Accounting stressing that work is under process to finalize procedures to offer it at TAGSB.

Gharaibeh revealed that the Jordanian Armed Forces, represented by the Royal Medical Services, have started an agreement with TAGSB Administration to send pharmacists working at the Medical Services to study Logistics in addition to other companies and organizations who showed interest in enrolling their employees in this field of study.

Consequently, the Dean stated that TAGSB Advisory Council Chairman Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh decided to grant all students delegated by the Armed Forces- Royal Medical Services a special fees discount in gratitude for all the medical services they provide to the community.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) is the first school of its kind in the Arab world that represents a partnership between the private and public sectors. It was founded to provide educational opportunities at the highest international standards.

TAGSB's aim is to prepare students for leadership positions in certain specialized fields. The MBA program is accredited by the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA).

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAGSB) has been honored with an award of "Best Educational Institute in Administration in Asia by the World Education Congress Asia Awards 2011, global awards for excellence in education, leadership and teaching.

While according to Forbes Middle East, "Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business Leads Best MBA Offering Schools in the Arab world."

<http://repo105.com/forensicaccounting/>