A Glance at one of our services - Due Diligence

TAG-Value offers comprehensive Due Diligence services for companies, which are considering business transactions such as mergers and acquisitions, investing and forming strategic alliances with others. Due Diligence is also imperative for companies that are looking to improve the effectiveness of their businesses through a third party's unbiased inspection.

Due Diligence is performed by scrutinizing the transaction at hand and all related previous and ongoing activities, in addition to analyzing and authenticating past and present financial, commercial, operational and strategic aspects by applying detailed intensive studies and identifying appropriate actionable plans for the purpose of enhancing organizational effectiveness.

We, as a leading consulting firm and highly regarded as one of the top financial consulting firms in the region, strengthen our clients' transacting decisions by combining knowledge and experience in various fields with writing skills that present comprehensive outcomes in clear final reports.

Due Diligence helps companies formulate their corporate strategies and identify poor performance. It also provides the basis on which plans for assessing new markets and prospective acquisition targets are prepared.

Conducting a Financial Due Diligence enables you to:

- Identify potential deficiency in the target and detect bad business transactions.
- Verify that the transaction complies with investment or acquisition criteria.
- Validate that the business entity is what it appears to be.

TAG-Value offers a variety of interrelated Due Diligence services designed to enhance your transacting decisions:

- Financial Due Diligence
 - Market and Commercial Due Diligence
 - Legal Due Diligence
 - Tax Due Diligence
