AMMAN - The Arab Society for Intellectual Property (ASIP) launched the 'Top Arab Brands' contest with the aim to highlight the famous Arab brands at an international level. The initiative is based on a recommendation by HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh at the recent meetings of ASIP Board of Directors and General Assembly.

The contest is centered on a voting system that allows all sectors, community segments, media and social networks to participate in to reach as many voters as possible to select the most famous Arab brands from a list that comprises 200 brands.

At the end of the voting process, information will be digitally collected and analyzed to regroup the brands into two lists: that the first includes the most famous Arab brands in general and the second includes the most famous Arab brands by sector.

For voters, ASIP will present TAGITOP devices, the first state-of-the-art Arab laptops.

In order for this initiative to succeed and realize its objective, we are looking forward for your assistance in circulating this contest on a broad level including (chambers of commerce and industry, banks, companies, universities, media, unions, professional associations among others).

Interested participants may vote via the following link www.toparabbrands.com which was specifically developed for the initiative.

AGIP & FICPI Work on Establishing a Jordanian Chapter

TURIN - Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP), represented by its Executive Director Mr. Charles Shaban, participated in the ExCo Meeting of the Fédération Internationale des Conseils en Propriété Industrielle (FICPI) 2019 held in Turin Italy.

Shaban took part in all working sessions of FICPI commissions and workshops outlining the development of position papers related to the development of different IP services that FICPI shares with Intellectual Property offices worldwide.

During the meetings, Shaban discussed with FICPI President Mr. Julian Crump, former president Mr. Doug Deeth, Secretary General Mr. Roberto Pistolesi, membership commission president Mr. Barry Graham and Mr. Markus Hoessle, and Mr. Hendrik Jan Brookhuis (membership commission) the necessary steps required for establishing a Jordanian chapter that might later cover the entire Arab region. FICPI welcomed the proposal offering its full support, starting with arranging a seminar scheduled to take place in 2019, as well as meeting with the prospective members in Jordan.

FICPI (Fédération Internationale des Conseils en Propriété Industrielle) is a voluntary, not-for-profit, international federation of national IP associations, dedicated national sections of FICPI and individual members. Founded in 1906, FICPI has more than 5,000 members in more than 80 countries on six continents.
