'Abu-Ghazaleh for Technology' Wins Membership of Jordan Airport Free Zone's Golden List

2

AMMAN – Talal Abu-Ghazaleh for Technology (TAGTech), a member of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), has won the Membership of the 2023 Golden List of Queen Alia International Airport Free Zone.

The selection of TAGTech was based on an evaluation, conducted by a specialized 7-member Evaluation Committee, led by the Free Zone Group's general manager and the membership of four senior employees. TAGTech successfully met all membership criteria and requirements.

The evaluation criteria included, the trade activity, the amount of fixed capital, and the establishment's general appearance, including green places that contribute to improving the Free Zone's environment. That is in addition to the company's commitment to Corporate Social Responsibility, the community services it offers, the extent of compliance with regulations and instructions; such as no customs violations, environmental cleanliness, and the prompt payment of salaries. That is in addition to the compliance with public safety requirements and conditions, the size of export industries and transit trade, the investor's use of modern administrative methods, and electronic inventory management monitoring. It is worth mentioning that Talal Abu-Ghazaleh for Technology (TAGTech) was established in 2019, as a specialized firm in manufacturing and producing electronic devices, including laptops, tablets, smartphones, and other accessories, through its first factory in China and subsequently opened three other branches in Egypt in cooperation with the Arab Organization for Industrialization (Aoi), Lebanon, and lately in Jordan in November 2021.

TAGTech is specialized in manufacturing, designing, and producing cutting-edge devices for personal or commercial use and designed specifically for the citizens of the knowledge world by experts in the manufacturing and technological production field at affordable prices that are competitive with other brands, to enable the citizens to possess a state-of-the-art laptop.

Jordan Golden List aims to recognize outstanding performance of companies and individuals in various investment fields in the Free Zones, highlighting the contributions of distinguished investors and entrepreneurs who positively contribute to the development of the free zones, and encourage the rest of the investors to follow in their footsteps, as well as promoting and attracting investments to the free zones.

Abu-Ghazaleh Cybersecurity is one of the key challenges threatening the future of humanity

BEIRUT – HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, founder and chairman of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), has stressed that cybersecurity is considered one of the key important issues that threaten the future of humanity, due to its challenges that compel everyone to protect national security.

Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh's remarks came during his participation as a keynote speaker at the Cybersecurity Conference organized by the Adnan Kassar School of Business at the Lebanese American University (LAU) in cooperation with BMB Smart, under the title "Smart Shield: Protecting Information in the Digital Age". In his speech, Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh referred to the unprecedented changes and development of the Internet since he assumed his role in the United Nations ICT Task Force in 2000; stating that 'cybersecurity is a standalone science that needs to permanently keep pace with technology advancements to safeguard data and information in all its forms from any theft, deletion, or change.

He also referred to the significance of the Conference, which serves as an important tool for keeping abreast with the most recent advancements in cybersecurity science. In addition, Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh expressed his thanks to Lebanon, noting it is one of the countries that are distinguished by supporting creativity regardless of any disagreements, political disputes, or other conditions. For his part, LAU President, Dr. Michel Mawad, said that the theme of the Conference constitutes one of the most important issues of our era since it interferes with human existence in an unprecedented way, reviewing the concept of protection for individuals and the groups. "The University deals with information systems at various levels, including medical, academic, financial, and human resources. Cybersecurity is important to safeguard data and secure systems against any threats during their operations," he said.

For his part, Lebanon's Minister of Telecommunications, HE Mr. Johnny Korm, stated that economic and security infrastructure may be jeopardized in the digital age that we live in, which exceeds responsibility beyond traditional borders and known defenses. Additionally, he reaffirmed that cybersecurity is a matter of national security that has become a basic need that requires cooperation and partnership between the public and the private sectors in order to combine innovation with public policies to ensure security and effective performance.

It is worth mentioning that the Conference was held in the presence of Head of the Cybercrime Division, Colonel Patrick Obeid, heads and managers of companies and institutions specialized in the Internet and cybersecurity, and a host of experts in the field from Lebanon, Arab and foreign countries.

UNRWA in Jordan and Abu-Ghazaleh discuss new cooperation programs to support Palestine Refugees

A new initiative launched by Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global Digital Group

Amman - The Chairman and Founder of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global Group, His Excellency Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, during his visit to the offices of the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees (UNRWA) in Jordan, discussed ways to enhance joint cooperation in many important fields. The talks centered on several proposals and directions that reflect Abu-Ghazaleh's firm commitment in supporting Palestine refugees.

Mr. Olaf Becker, Director of UNRWA Affairs in Jordan, said during his meeting with Abu-Ghazaleh that UNRWA seeks to modernize its services to Palestine refugees, noting that this year the e-UNRWA platform was launched enabling Palestine Refugees to update their details and register online. This facilitates their access to the services available at the agency including, education, health, relief, social services, and microfinance, in addition to ensuring that they preserve their rights and the rights of their children as refugees from Palestine and in accordance with United Nations resolutions. Mr. Becker pointed out that the "All for Palestine Association", which was founded by Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, constituted a wonderful initiative to showcase the positive contributions to society of Palestinians around the world. His Excellency Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh affirmed his support for UNRWA's humanitarian efforts in serving Palestine refugees, noting that he personally graduated from university with a scholarship from UNRWA, for which he always feels grateful. Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh outlined the support provided by Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global Group to Palestine refugees, including the one million master's scholarship offered by Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global Digital University in the specialties of (artificial intelligence, information technology, digital marketing, intellectual property, and supply chain management), with the objective to be provided to more than one million Palestine refugees.

His Excellency Abu Ghazaleh,

pointed out that the "All for Palestine Association" is a unique and unparalleled association, as it is neither for profit nor political, and its establishment came with the aim of documenting Palestinian creativity and achievements around the world, noting that the number of registered people on the All for Palestine website is (10,000) around the world. While the number of registered Palestinian inventors exceeded (5000).

The attendees stressed cooperation in supporting UNRWA's mission in documenting Palestine refugee data and UNRWA's vital role in that. The meeting witnessed praise for the services provided by Abu-Ghazaleh through the positions he held at the United Nations. The meeting, hosted by UNRWA, was attended by experts and specialists from both sides in the fields of education, relief, social services, documentation, registration and media staff.

Abu-Ghazaleh Mourns Palestinian Gaza Martyrs including TAG. Global's Gaza Office Members

AMMAN - HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, chairman and founder of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), has mourned the Palestinian martyrs of the Israeli massacres in Gaza and the other martyrs of the ongoing Israeli aggression in the West Bank.

Since the beginning of the Israeli aggression on October 7, 2023, until last night, Gaza figures reveal more than 4741 martyrs, over 40% out of them are children and 30% are women, in addition to more than 1450 still under the rubble of their demolished homes, and 14,500 Palestinians wounded. That is in addition to the destruction of nearly 165,000 residential units; approximately 50% of the total residential units in the Gaza Strip, and more than 1.4 million people were displaced inside Gaza.

Furthermore, Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh mourned the family of Mr. Jamil Hafeth Al-Masri (Al-Masri family), the professional services manager in TAG.Global Gaza office, who was martyred, with 29 members of his family, including his wife, son, daughter, and grandchildren, in a direct bombardment of his home in Rafah on October 16, 2023.

Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh also mourned the Executive Director of TAG.Global Gaza, Mr. Munir Hasan for the martyrdom of his sister Wisam Muhammad Ali Hasan 'Um Saadallah Skik' (Al-Hasan and Al-Skik families), who, along with 17 family members, including her husband, their children, daughter, and grandchildren from the Skik family, lost their lives in a direct bombing of the family's home in Gaza.

It is worth mentioning that the Israeli enemy has targeted the building where TAG.Global offices are located in Gaza city in an airstrike on October 21, 2023, noting that the offices had previously been targeted in multiple attacks and were completely destroyed in the Israeli aggression on Gaza in 2021.

"Despite the great pain and sorrow for the victims of the Zionist crimes, I believe that what is happening now is the beginning of the battle for liberation and the realization of the historic and national rights of the Palestinian people, as well as the end of the Zionist occupation," Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh said.
