Chairman of TAG ORG.
Amman, Jordan.

Subject: A congratulations letter for your outstanding achievements

Dear Dr. Abu Ghazaleh,

Allow me in person, and on behalf of my colleagues, the members of the board of Amman Chamber of Commerce, to present my faithful compliments to your excellency, and to extend my warmest greetings and the most sincere congratulations for you, being honored, by the president of People Republic of China, and expressing my warmest wishes for your well-being and prosperity.

TAG ORG has always had a clear vision, it has been, and still, a source of inspiration for many educational, cultural and economic developmental firms in recognition of its remarkable dedication as well as its determination to create a better life for those who are ambitious, assuring you that your enthusiasm and insight are really inspiring, and we wish you many years of great achievements.

I finally extend my thanks and gratitude to you for dedicating us the book of yours "Blankets Become Jackets" which will be instantly added to our useful references so that we can benefit from its significant information in several educational, cultural and intellectual domains.

Amman Chamber of Commerce avails itself of this opportunity to renew to TAG ORG the assurance of its highest consideration, ever to be.

Sincerely yours,
Issa Haidar Murad

Chairman of Amman Chamber of Commerce
