Integrating Arab e-infrastructure in a Global Environment e-AGE, is an annual international platform conducted by the Arab States Research and Education Network, ASREN. Since it launched in December 2010 at the League of Arab States, it was decided that this annual activity would move from one Arab country to another. e-AGE comes in line with ASREN's major objectives related to creating awareness, promoting Research and Education (R&E) collaboration and joint activities and establishing human networks in order to facilitate collaboration and cooperation among researchers and academicians in the Arab region and the rest of the world.

e-AGE was established to be the launching pad for R&E connectivity and cooperation. It brings together the stakeholders and the region's foremost innovators, leaders, scientists, and businesses to discuss and debate new models of innovation, integration of R&E networks, policies for sustainable development in education, means of knowledge sharing and dissemination, capacity building programs, and region-wide e- infrastructure deployment to tackle today's crises in climate change, global economy, food, water scarcity, alternative energy, and environmental issues. The e-Infrastructures are evolving in the Arab region at both national and regional levels as more than 15 Arab countries now have NREN in place or are starting their NREN.
