

Ambassador of the Arabs

Jeremy Haley

Minister of Foreign Affairs and Armed Forces and a former member of the British Cabinet of Ministers

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh is a distinguished man world-wide and is known for his ability to communicate with the outside world with remarkable efficiency and distinction. He is one of the most prominent and intelligent Arab personalities I have ever known in my life during my tenure as Minister of Foreign Affairs and Armed Forces and a member of the Cabinet of Ministers.

In my opinion, Talal is an ambassador to the Arabs and known throughout the world as a Palestinian personality who believes in, respects and abides by the laws. He works to develop and consolidate laws and standards related to the accounting profession, which are fundamental to the economy and development in all fields.

In this context, I would like to point out that I have recognized from Talal Abu-Ghazaleh on the issues and aspirations of the Arab peoples, and I thank him for this. He has been able to describe to us the issues of the Arab region in a clear and transparent manner, especially those crucial issues that concern many zonal states. I mention here the Palestinian issue, which is an important part of the life of the Arab Ambassador Talal Abu-Ghazaleh.
