

Dubai Customs Honors Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property

MENAFN Press - 30/04/2012

(MENAFNPress) AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs DUBAI -April 30, 2012 - In recognition of its significant role in safeguarding Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs), Dubai Customs honored Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) in a special ceremony marking World Intellectual Property Day at the Royal Mirage Hotel in Dubai AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs .

Executive Director of AGIP UAE Offices Mr. Amjad El Hussein who received the reward on behalf of AGIP said: “We are really proud to be recognized for the third year in a row by Dubai Customs under the guidance of our Chairman Talal Abu-Ghazaleh”.

He added:”On the other hand, it proves the awareness of the trademarks owners around the world for the vital role that Dubai Customs plays in safeguarding their Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) in the UAE”.

The reward was presented by Mr. Ahmed Butti Ahmed, Executive Chairman of Ports Customs and Free Zone Corporation and Director General of Dubai Customs and Mr. Yousuf Ozair, Senior Manager of IPR Department at Dubai Customs.

Honoring AGIP coincides with the world's celebration of the World Intellectual Property Day. In 2000, the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) Member States decided to designate an annual World Intellectual Property Day. They chose April 26, the date on which the Convention establishing WIPO originally entered into force in 1970.

Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) was established in Kuwait in 1972, under the name of T.M.P Agents in a time when Intellectual Property (IP) protection was still in its early stages of development in the Arab region. However, since our launch, AGIP has consistently been at the forefront of efforts to improve the infrastructure of IP in the Arab world.

To this end, AGIP has worked in close coordination with Arab governments and multilateral organizations on introducing an efficient IP system that has brought up significant changes to the region.

About Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Organization

TAGORG.com Your global partner in 73 offices and 180 correspondents, for all your business needs: auditing, valuation, management consulting, ICT development, business advisory, training, educational consultancy, capital services, human resources development, real estate consulting, translation, legal service, intellectual property rights protection and domain name registration.

<http://www.menafn.com/menafn/1093508676/Dubai-Customs-Honors-AbuGhazaleh-Intellectual-Property>

Dubai Customs honors Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property

Published May 1st, 2012 - 05:41 GMT

In recognition of its significant role in safeguarding Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs), Dubai Customs honored Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) in a special ceremony marking World Intellectual Property Day at the Royal Mirage Hotel in Dubai.

AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs.

Executive Director of AGIP UAE Offices Mr. Amjad El Hussein who received the reward on behalf of AGIP said: "We are really proud to be recognized for the third year in a row by Dubai Customs under the guidance of our Chairman Talal Abu-Ghazaleh."

He added: "On the other hand, it proves the awareness of the trademarks owners around the world for the vital role that Dubai Customs plays in safeguarding their Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) in the UAE."

The reward was presented by Mr. Ahmed Butti Ahmed, Executive Chairman of Ports Customs and Free Zone Corporation and Director General of Dubai

Customs and Mr. Yousuf Ozair, Senior Manager of IPR Department at Dubai Customs.

Honoring AGIP coincides with the world's celebration of the World Intellectual Property Day. In 2000, the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) Member States decided to designate an annual World Intellectual Property Day. They chose April 26, the date on which the Convention establishing WIPO originally entered into force in 1970.

Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) was established in Kuwait in 1972, under the name of T.M.P Agents in a time when Intellectual Property (IP) protection was still in its early stages of development in the Arab region. However, since our launch, AGIP has consistently been at the forefront of efforts to improve the infrastructure of IP in the Arab world.

To this end, AGIP has worked in close coordination with Arab governments and multilateral organizations on introducing an efficient IP system that has brought up significant changes to the region.

<http://www.albawaba.com/en/node/423176>

NEWS LEGAL PLANET

Dubai Customs Honors Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property

MENAFN Press - 30/04/2012

(MENAFN Press) AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs DUBAI -April 30, 2012 - In recognition of its significant role in safeguarding Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs), Dubai Customs honored Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) in a special ceremony marking World Intellectual Property Day at the Royal Mirage Hotel in Dubai AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs .

Executive Director of AGIP UAE Offices Mr. Amjad El Hussein who received the reward on behalf of AGIP said: “We are really proud to be recognized for the third year in a row by Dubai Customs under the guidance of our Chairman Talal Abu-Ghazaleh”.

He added:”On the other hand, it proves the awareness of the trademarks owners around the world for the vital role that Dubai Customs plays in safeguarding their Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) in the UAE”.

The reward was presented by Mr. Ahmed Butti Ahmed, Executive Chairman of Ports Customs and Free Zone Corporation and Director General of Dubai

Customs and Mr. Yousuf Ozair, Senior Manager of IPR Department at Dubai Customs.

Honoring AGIP coincides with the world's celebration of the World Intellectual Property Day. In 2000, the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) Member States decided to designate an annual World Intellectual Property Day. They chose April 26, the date on which the Convention establishing WIPO originally entered into force in 1970.

Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) was established in Kuwait in 1972, under the name of T.M.P Agents in a time when Intellectual Property (IP) protection was still in its early stages of development in the Arab region. However, since our launch, AGIP has consistently been at the forefront of efforts to improve the infrastructure of IP in the Arab world.

To this end, AGIP has worked in close coordination with Arab governments and multilateral organizations on introducing an efficient IP system that has brought up significant changes to the region.

About Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Organization

TAGORG.com Your global partner in 73 offices and 180 correspondents, for all your business needs: auditing, valuation, management consulting, ICT development, business advisory, training, educational consultancy, capital services, human resources development, real estate consulting, translation, legal service, intellectual property rights protection and domain name registration.

<http://legalplanet.com/2012/04/30/dubai-customs-honors-abu-ghazaleh-intellectual-property-menafn-com/>

Dubai Customs Honors Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property

MENAFN Press - 30/04/2012

(MENAFN Press) AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs DUBAI -April 30, 2012 - In recognition of its significant role in safeguarding Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs), Dubai Customs honored Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) in a special ceremony marking World Intellectual Property Day at the Royal Mirage Hotel in Dubai AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs .

Executive Director of AGIP UAE Offices Mr. Amjad El Hussein who received the reward on behalf of AGIP said: “We are really proud to be recognized for the third year in a row by Dubai Customs under the guidance of our Chairman Talal Abu-Ghazaleh”.

He added:”On the other hand, it proves the awareness of the trademarks owners around the world for the vital role that Dubai Customs plays in safeguarding their Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) in the UAE”.

The reward was presented by Mr. Ahmed Butti Ahmed, Executive Chairman of Ports Customs and Free Zone Corporation and Director General of Dubai

Customs and Mr. Yousuf Ozair, Senior Manager of IPR Department at Dubai Customs.

Honoring AGIP coincides with the world's celebration of the World Intellectual Property Day. In 2000, the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) Member States decided to designate an annual World Intellectual Property Day. They chose April 26, the date on which the Convention establishing WIPO originally entered into force in 1970.

Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) was established in Kuwait in 1972, under the name of T.M.P Agents in a time when Intellectual Property (IP) protection was still in its early stages of development in the Arab region. However, since our launch, AGIP has consistently been at the forefront of efforts to improve the infrastructure of IP in the Arab world.

To this end, AGIP has worked in close coordination with Arab governments and multilateral organizations on introducing an efficient IP system that has brought up significant changes to the region.

About Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Organization

TAGORG.com Your global partner in 73 offices and 180 correspondents, for all your business needs: auditing, valuation, management consulting, ICT development, business advisory, training, educational consultancy, capital services, human resources development, real estate consulting, translation, legal service, intellectual property rights protection and domain name registration.

<http://www.feedsfloor.com/media-marketing/dubai-customs-honors-abu-ghazaleh-intellectual-property>

Dubai News

Dubai Customs Honors Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property May 012012

(MENAFN Press) AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs

DUBAI “ April 30, 2012 – In recognition of its significant role in safeguarding Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs), Dubai Customs honored Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) in a special ceremony marking World Intellectual Property Day at the Royal Mirage Hotel in Dubai.

AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs.

Executive Director of AGIP UAE Offices Mr. Amjad El Hussein who received the reward on behalf of AGIP said: “We are really proud to be recognized for the third year in a row by Dubai Customs under the guidance of our Chairman Talal Abu-Ghazaleh”.

He added:”On the other hand, it proves the awareness of the trademarks owners around the world for the vital role that Dubai Customs plays in safeguarding their Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) in the UAE”.

The reward was presented by Mr. Ahmed Butti Ahmed, Executive Chairman of Ports Customs and Free Zone Corporation and Director General of Dubai

Customs and Mr. Yousuf Ozair, Senior Manager of IPR Department at Dubai Customs.

Honoring AGIP coincides with the world's celebration of the World Intellectual Property Day. In 2000, the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) Member States decided to designate an annual World Intellectual Property Day. They chose April 26, the date on which the Convention establishing WIPO originally entered into force in 1970.

Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) was established in Kuwait in 1972, under the name of T.M.P Agents in a time when Intellectual Property (IP) protection was still in its early stages of development in the Arab region. However, since our launch, AGIP has consistently been at the forefront of efforts to improve the infrastructure of IP in the Arab world.

To this end, AGIP has worked in close coordination with Arab governments and multilateral organizations on introducing an efficient IP system that has brought up significant changes to the region.

About Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Organization

TAGORG.com Your global partner in 73 offices and 180 correspondents, for all your business needs: auditing, valuation, management consulting, ICT development, business advisory, training, educational consultancy, capital services, human resources development, real estate consulting, translation, legal service, intellectual property rights protection and domain name registration.

<http://www.dxbwebsite.com/dubai-customs-honors-abu-ghazaleh-intellectual-property/>

The Muslim500

The World's Most Influential Muslims

Dubai Customs Honors Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property

Apr-2012|Source : AG-IP News|Visits : 353-30
Special to ag-IP-news Agency

DUBAI - In recognition of its significant role in safeguarding Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs), Dubai Customs honored Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) in a special ceremony marking World Intellectual Property Day at the Royal Mirage Hotel in Dubai.

AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs.

Executive Director of AGIP UAE Offices Mr. Amjad El Hussein who received the award on behalf of AGIP said: "We are really proud to be recognized for the third year in a row by Dubai Customs under the guidance of our Chairman Talal Abu-Ghazaleh".

He added:"On the other hand, it proves the awareness of the trademarks owners around the world for the vital role that Dubai Customs plays in safeguarding their Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) in the UAE".

The reward was presented by Mr. Ahmed Butti Ahmed, Executive Chairman of Ports Customs and Free Zone Corporation and Director General of Dubai Customs and Mr. Yousuf Ozair, Senior Manager of IPR Department at Dubai Customs.

Honoring AGIP coincides with the world's celebration of the World Intellectual Property Day. In 2000, the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) Member States decided to designate an annual World Intellectual Property Day. They chose April 26, the date on which the Convention establishing WIPO originally entered into force in 1970.

Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP) was established in Kuwait in 1972, under the name of T.M.P Agents in a time when Intellectual Property (IP) protection was still in its early stages of development in the Arab region. However, since our launch, AGIP has consistently been at the forefront of efforts to improve the infrastructure of IP in the Arab world.

To this end, AGIP has worked in close coordination with Arab governments and multilateral organizations on introducing an efficient IP system that has brought up significant changes to the region.

<http://themuslim500.com/profile/talal-abu-ghazaleh>

Connecting intelligence with intelligence

Dubai Customs Honors Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property

Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property

AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs

DUBAI - April 30, 2012

In recognition of its significant role in safeguarding Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs), Dubai Customs honored Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property (AGIP ) in a special ceremony marking World Intellectual Property Day at the Royal Mirage Hotel in Dubai.

AGIP was recognized for being the biggest Intellectual Property firm in registering and recording trademarks with Dubai Customs.

He added:”On the other hand, it proves the awareness of the trademarks owners around the world for the vital role that Dubai Customs plays in safeguarding their Intellectual Property Rights (IPRs) in the UAE”.

The reward was presented by Mr. Ahmed Butti Ahmed, Executive Chairman of Ports Customs and Free Zone Corporation and Director General of Dubai Customs and Mr. Yousuf Ozair, Senior Manager of IPR Department at Dubai Customs.

Honoring AGIP coincides with the world's celebration of the World Intellectual Property Day. In 2000, the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) Member States decided to designate an annual World Intellectual Property Day. They chose April 26, the date on which the Convention establishing WIPO originally entered into force in 1970.

Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property ( AGIP ) was established in Kuwait in 1972, under the name of T.M.P Agents in a time when Intellectual Property

(IP) protection was still in its early stages of development in the Arab region. However, since our launch, AGIP has consistently been at the forefront of efforts to improve the infrastructure of IP in the Arab world.

To this end, AGIP has worked in close coordination with Arab governments and multilateral organizations on introducing an efficient IP system that has brought up significant changes to the region.

<http://www.zawya.com/story/ZAWYA20120430190223?q=dubai%20customs%20honors%20abu%20ghazaleh/>