TAG-Org businesses and services in Jordan are dynamic, inclusive and diverse, serving all major sectors of the national economy.

TAG-Org operations are conducted through 350 high caliber and multi-disciplinary staff equipped with state-of-the-art infrastructure in the fields of ICT, e-solutions and databases. This combination of outstanding staff quality and up-to-date infrastructure, including the ownership and control of a secure and high-speed internet line, gives a unique advantage and powerful resources to TAG-Org in providing key services to businesses and the public sector alike.

The Amman offices, as TAG-Org main office, also provide professional and logistic support to other offices to ensure timely accomplishment of tasks according to established standards. In their endeavor towards excellence, our offices in Jordan practice effective management of quality control and assurance, performance appraisal and control of productivity indicators for TAG-Org businesses and activities.

TAG-Org offices in Jordan operate from three buildings located in the Capital Amman and equipped with state-of-the-art technologies, namely:

- The main office, general administration, TAGIP (AGIP) offices and TAGI-Auditors offices
- Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business Building
- Talal Abu-Ghazaleh University- regional office building

With his Majesty Late King Hussein Bin Talal

TAG-Org offices in Jordan have accomplished remarkable progress, overcoming any problems on the way. Among its offices in Amman is the regional office of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Intellectual Property TAGIP (AGIP), which is the first of its kind: a pioneering company in the IP field in the world. Out of its social responsibility, AGIP has undertaken numerous initiatives focused on human capacity- building to serve the community and the economy.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh University “TAGI-UNI”, the gateway to world-class education, also established in Jordan, constitutes a revolution in higher education. TAGI-UNI is a global educational alliance that aims to make world-class education accessible to everyone, everywhere.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Graduate School of Business (TAG-SB) was inaugurated in 2006 as one of the faculties of the German-Jordanian University. TAG-SB is the first school of its kind that represents a partnership between the private and public sectors. In 2009, the Foundation for International Business Administration Accreditation (FIBAA) granted TAG-SB a five years accreditation to its MBA program. In 2011, TAG-SB has been honored with an award of “Best Educational Institute in Management in Asia” by the World Education Congress Asia Awards 2011. TAG-SB has become synonymous with excellence in higher education in the field of business administration.
