Abu Al Ragheb, JOrchestra and NMC Team Up to Bring Euphoria to a Full House Odeon Theatre

AMMAN,

Under the patronage of HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, the Jordanian National Orchestra Association (JOchestra) and the National Music Conservatory (NMC) Choir teamed up with the talented Jordanian composer Talal Abu Al Ragheb to bring the sounds of Euphoria in a special concert conducted by Mohammad Sidiq at the Odeon Theatre.

Euphoria which means a feeling or state of intense excitement and happiness mixed the past and the present with a wonderfully played 11 magical pieces, accompanied by Maestro Mohammad Sidiq, that will form Abu Al Ragheb's next album.

Sixty musicians joined hands with NMC Choir headed by singer Linda Hijazi to perform beautiful pieces: After Love, Ecstasy, Sophia, Free Men, We are All One, Signs of Love, She among others.

Talal Abu Al Ragheb is a music composer and sound designer as well as a film composer, and music producer. He has established himself throughout his 25-year career as one of the most admired composers in Jordan. His musical path includes composing several musical pieces locally and internationally. He produced musical pieces for various TVCs and radio commercials, theater productions, documentaries, films, children's songs and concerts. He released the albums (Rou'ya) in 2007, (Al Hadi) in 2011, and he will release (Euphoria) in 2016.

He received many prizes in acknowledgment of his talent, love and passion for music. Abu Al Ragheb holds the Queen Rania Award for Creativity, and multiple local and international awards.

Abu-Ghazaleh Patronizes Ayman Tayseer's 'Aaz Al Alhan' Concert Accompanied by Jorchestra

AMMAN,

With the attendance of HRH Princess Wejdan Ali and HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, the Jordanian National Orchestra Association (JOrchestra) conducted by Maestro Mohammad Sidiq presented "Aaz Al Alhan" Concert of the popular singer Ayman Tayseer at the Odeon Amphitheatre.

The concert was attended by a host of ambassadors, diplomats, artists and large audience who witnessed the launch of the latest musical production of the singer which consists of 11 songs composed by Ayman Tayseer during the last 20 years of his professional career. The singer presented for the first time four songs of "Aaz Al Alhan" album including Ya Okhta Maccata which is a poem dedicated to Jerusalem and "Bat Khayl Nafsi" a song dedicated to peace.

The concert took the audience on a trip down memory lane with songs by two of the greatest classical Arabic singers: Mohammed Abdel Wahhab and Abdel Halim Hafez. The nostalgic traditional melodies are arranged for symphonic Orchestra to bring on stage an unforgettable concert.

The audience also emotionally interacted with songs known by all mainly “Ibtasim”, “Jabbar”, “Balash Itab” and concluded with Egyptian singer Abdel Halim Hafez unforgettable song “Ana Kol Ma Agol El Tawbah”.

Ayman Tayseer is a Jordanian artist, who was deeply fascinated with classical Arabic singing. Tayseer began his career as a singer and a composer at early age and made his first public performance in 1993.

Since then he committed himself to preserve and maintain classical Arabic heritage. He holds a PhD in Musicology and Voice from the Holy Spirit University of Kaslik, Lebanon (2005). He is currently the Dean of the Faculty of Art and Design at Jordan University.

He is the founder of the Jordanian Music Forum and the Director of the annual Jordanian Sufi Festival.

In addition to his participation in numerous Arab and international musical events, he has won several awards, most notably for his work as a composer at the Petra Festival in 2000, as well as the King Abdullah II Award for Musical Creativity in 2001.
