Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International University

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh International University (TAGI-UNI) was founded by HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh in 2013 as a global educational alliance that facilitates distance learning by working in partnership with global professional associations.

Since its establishment in 2013, TAGI-UNI has secured partnerships with very reputable universities and training institutions such as University of Liverpool, Thunderbird School of Management and many other providers of online education.

TAGI-UNI is the people's gateway to the world's best education, promoting global citizenship and individual responsibility. Under its mission "to make accredited educational programs accessible to everyone, everywhere", TAGI-UNI uses partnerships - comprised of a network of universities, non-government organizations, training institutions, and language schools - as its modus operandi to deliver comprehensive education to a global student body. Thus, digital education provided by international institutions compels individuals to understand their interdependence and their interconnected roles in the modern world.

With its vision of "world-class education as a human right", Talal Abu-Ghazaleh University seeks to democratize education through a system of channels to open students' dialogue with one another, therefore putting the quality of interaction in their hands. TAGI-UNI makes it possible for the transforming societies to embrace new concepts emerging from the ground up, given that accessibility to education is paramount for maximizing these societies' potential.

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh University provides boundless world-class higher education across the globe to learners who may be unable to afford the costs of travel. All programs offered are of the highest caliber and relevant to global job market needs.

■ Palestine Ahliya University in Bethlehem Honors Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global

RAMALLAH - Palestine Ahliya University (PAU) in Bethlehem honored Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), in view of its strategic partnership at the University's Management Information Systems (MIS) improvement project, funded by the World Bank under the supervision of the Bank's Project Coordinating Unit at the Palestinian Ministry of Higher Education and Scientific Research.

During the ceremony, PAU Vice President for Financial and Administrative Affairs, Dr. Imad Al-Zeer, awarded an honorary shield to TAG.Global's representative and Consulting Manager in Ramallah Mr. Abdel Karim Ka'abneh, in addition to honoring Palestine Telecommunications Company - Paltel.

Addressing the attendees, Al-Zeer expressed his gratitude to the participants who made the development of the project's activities a success, and he highly appreciated the efforts of all the concerned parties. He also highlighted the importance of partnerships and networking with the private sector institutions based on solid foundations to significantly contribute to the development of the society, reiterating the positive consideration towards the private sector's contributions in supporting and boosting the Palestinian national economy. For his part, Ka'abneh underlined the strong professional relationship between TAG. Global and the University; which was further strengthened during the project execution phase, affirming that cooperation in projects that serve the students and the University in practical and scientific domains would continue.

Ka'abneh also emphasized that TAG.Global under the direction of HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, founder and chairman of TAG. Global, gives a special attention to students and the youth in general, noting that Palestine and its different institutions get the lion's share of such attention.

It is worth mentioning that the project, implemented at the University, aims at developing curriculum and improve academic plans for MIS students, in addition to building scholars' capacities in different scientific fields including teaching method, and field training.

MANAMA - The Regional Network for Social Responsibility (CSR) has honored HE Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh, founder and chairman of Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Global (TAG.Global), with the '2020 Personality of the Year for Community Service Award'.

patronage of HE Ali bin Saleh Al Saleh, Chairman of Shura Council in Bahrain, and organized by the International Donor Service Center; a member of the Regional Network for Social Responsibility (CSR), in collaboration with the Global Expert Consultations Group under the supervision of the Global Center for Sustainable Development (Global CSD).

The honoring ceremony took place during the Conference, which was held under the

The Conference, in its 4th edition, discussed the growing role of donors in supporting the economic recovery and sustainable development plans with the participation of a host of high-ranking international and Arab dignitaries.

During the opening ceremony, the King's Representative for Humanitarian Work and Youth Affairs in Bahrain, His Highness Shaikh Nasser bin Hamad Al Khalifa, received the Honorary Leadership Personality of the Year Award in the donation field, in addition to honoring a number of international and Arab organizations with the Award of Excellence.

In his keynote speech, Guest of Honor, Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh, said that giving is a corporate duty of companies and institutions, pointing out the importance of giving for achieving business sustainability.

"TAG.Global allocated 50% of its profits to support community through specialized training programs in education and capacity buildings," Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh said, adding that Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Foundation (TAG-Foundation) works on implementing 30 sustainable projects for community service, which reflects the community satisfaction towards TAG.Global, in addition to the support it receives from heads of states and community leaders.

Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh also praised the role of CSR in providing a professional and scientific platform that introduces the best practices and contributes to achieving multi-sectoral partnerships in the Arab region and beyond, with the aim of promoting sustainable social responsibility.

For his part, HE Prof. Yusuf Abdul Ghaffar, Chairman of the Board of Directors of CSR- Chairman of the Higher Organizing Committee of the Conference, expressed his gratitude and appreciation to Dr. Abu-Ghazaleh congratulating him on his great achievements, saying, "We, at the Regional Network for Social responsibility, appreciate the efforts of all those who have contributed to the sustainability of the CSR's work as well as the Conference, with special mention of Dr. Talal Abu-Ghazaleh for his special support to the conference's work, in addition to his keenness to communicate with donors since the first edition of the conference. His honoring this year crystalizes his years-long efforts in the fields of community service in the Arab region and beyond."

■ Start Your MBA Based on MOOC Today!

Talal Abu-Ghazaleh Digital University (TAG-DU) is based on the belief that education is a human right and not a privilege for the few who can afford to stay out of the workplace and physically attend local professional programs.

For this purpose, TAG-DU invites you to explore the nine disciplines in which diplomas are granted and select the discipline of your choice.

In this issue, we are going to introduce “Course in Management.”

This program gives you the opportunity to gain extensive knowledge and understanding of the principles and practices behind key management subjects.

The suggested sequence consists of seven courses; the candidate needs to complete five courses and provide certificates of completion for each course taken. These courses are:

- Managing the Organization: From Organizational Design to Execution
- States and Markets in the Global Economy
- International Leadership and Organizational Behavior
- Foundations of Strategic Business Analytics
- The Manager’s Toolkit: A Practical Guide to Managing People at Work
- International Project Management
- And Strategic Management
